

SPACE LAUNCH WING ORGANIZATION

The following shows the major organization of a USSF Space Launch Delta 30. This diagram is simplified, and omits many Delta functions. The agencies included in the diagram are those most likely to be encountered by the new Range User. Additional program support information can be obtained from the Plans and Programs Office (XP).

Note: Due to periodic reorganizations, organizational designations and their exact roles and responsibilities are subject to change.

